

For Immediate Release

RICHMOND, Va. (January 21, 2009) — Slotline, a premium collection of putters featuring advanced Moment of Inertia (MOI) technology, will sponsor two Pro-Pro series tournaments during the week of the 2009 PGA Merchandise Show in Orlando from January 29 – 31. All of Slotline's fourteen putter models will be available for golf professionals to use during the tournaments at Sugarloaf Mountain on January 26th and at Timacuan Golf and Tennis Club on January 27th.

“We are excited to be the exclusive putter company sponsoring these events. We look forward to giving this elite group of golf professionals the opportunity to test the new Slotline putters and to experience the exceptional feel and accuracy,” says Craig Ramsbottom, President of Slotline. Slotline is one of the golf industry's all-time best selling putter brands and the industry pioneer for using multi-metals and heel-toe weighting systems in putter design to achieve a high moment of inertia (MOI). The 2009 models hold true to these principles while incorporating state-of-the-art technology, advanced materials, the legendary 'SLOT' and 'LINE' alignment aid and much more.

PGA Professionals will also have the opportunity to test Slotline during Demo Day on January 28th at the Orange County National Golf Center and Lodge. In addition, Slotline will be participating at the PGA Show Equipment Test Center putting greens on the show floor and will be featured in room 202C.
